

1) Eligible are diploma students of the diploma year 2024 and young professionals (graduates up to and including diploma year 2019). A submission can be made alone, but also as a group. For groups, the producer is ideally the project contact person.

2) We are looking for outstanding, innovative and high-quality IPs and concepts for mixedmedia online, digital and film projects with a high entertainment value.

3) An IP / concept folder includes at least:

- Description / Short synopsis of a standalone IP, optimally related to the fictional adventure club "Adventure Club of Europe"
(The Adventure Club of Europe (ACE) is a fictional secret society of European explorers and adventurers dedicated to exploring and explaining the unknown and mysterious. A selection of members and expeditions can be found at <https://adventureclub.eu>. At Europa-Park Erlebnis-Resort, the ACE serves as a second layer that connects the park's attractions on a story level. Examples are the Voletarium, the Pirates in Batavia or the Water World Rulantica).
- Realization concept (conceptual-content elaboration) including rough production plan for
 - at least 1 XR format
 - at least 1 digital second layer with reference / possible use in Europa-Park, with reference to the "Adventure Club of Europe".
- First draft calculation for the above-mentioned realization concept
- Target group analysis and description of exploitation possibilities
- Description of the production of a self-defined intermediate step within the first year (e.g. first script draft/first prototype/vertical slice etc.)

4) Submissions must be uploaded in PDF format as one contiguous file on a FABW Nextcloud by December 20, 2023, 23:59:

5) Rights

The submitter(s) (hereinafter referred to as "submitter") must be the sole rights holder of the concepts/IP. The rights situation must be clarified in the case of several submitters. The concept must be submitted exclusively. In the case of award-winning IP & Storyworld concepts, the submitter will offer further developments, such as an exposé or screenplay, based on the concept to 2112 Studios before third parties (right of first offer).

Upon agreement and further collaboration, 2112 Studios and the submitter will enter into a separate agreement.

If no direct agreement is reached, 2112 Studios will receive an option right for a period of one year on all developments that are the result or relevant interim result of the development of the concept.

6) The nomination for the AUREA Young Talent Award is endowed with 3,000 euros each and is awarded to three concepts/teams. This is a direct promotion of the winning teams or nominees.

7) The winning teams or nominees are obliged to pitch the awarded concepts personally at the next AUREA AWARD in Rust. For up to two persons per nominated submission, the costs for 2 overnight stays and on-site participation at the AUREA Award will be covered. Travel costs to and from the event will be borne by these persons.

8) 2112 Studios is entitled to publish the name, contact details and short synopsis of the awarded concepts.

With the submission of the IP / concept folder, these conditions of participation and the schedule according to the call for proposals are accepted.
